Wigfall's Philosophy.—Not many months since the bellicose Texan Senator oracularly declared in the United States Senate:

"Cotton is King. We can ship our cotton; there is no trouble about that. But perhaps you will say that you will blockade us. In the first place, naval officers like to have a little pay now and then, if only to buy grog with. You cannot keep them in service unless you pay them. How are you going to pay them unless you tax your people? Your operatives will have nothing to do; your capitalists will be broken, and what are you going to tax? How do we stand? We have our cotton, and Europe is obliged to buy it. You might cram the granaries of England to bursting, and stop our supply of cotton for one week and she would be starving."

If the Ex Senator can find any intervals of leisure in camp to read such newspapers as may be smuggled into Secessia, he must be somewhat astonished to find that the Southern ports are blockaded; that the officers of our navy are well paid from a treasury well supplied from the free will offerings of the people and the capitalists; that business is daily becoming better, and—worse of all—that England does not find herself obliged to buy our cotton, but is quietly seeking her supplies elsewhere, dethroning king cotton, who will soon fall in the midst of his vanquished forces.

Rival Parties Equally Represented in the Army.—The N. Y. Tribune says:

Whatever may be the objections to voting in camps for civil officers, we rejoice that the Pennsylvania volunteers now in front of the rebels on the Potomac were at liberty to vote on Tuesday, as though they had been at home in their several counties, for their votes prove the falsehood of the incessant boasts of the Herald and its confederates that nearly all the volunteers are Democrats. So far as we have returns, a majority of those from Pennsylvania appear to be of the "People's Party," that elected Col. Curtin Governor, gave Lincoln the vote of the State, and sent Messrs. Cowan and Wilmot to the United States Senate. But we do not care whether a few more of them are of this or that party—the unquestionable fact that the rival parties are about equally represented in the ranks of the volunteers, is enough. Henceforth, let there be no attempt to exalt one party at the expense of the other, but let there be a friendly rivalry in prosecuting the war for the Union.

Beaufort, S. C., in Danger.—The fort at Port Royal, reported by the Savannah papers to have been attacked by the Federal fleet, is one of the defenses of Beaufort, S. C. The New York Commercial says:

"Port Royal entrance is one of the avenues of approach to Beaufort, S. C., a town situated in the extreme Southwestern portion of the State, a distance of sixteen miles from the coast, and a place of resort for the Southern chivalry. It is upon St. Helena island, with Broad river on its South, and Beaufort river on the North. Another approach to the town is by means of St. Helena sound, in the immediate vicinity of the South Edisto river. The North branch of this stream flows quiet close to Charleston.

Beaufort is an important point, from the fact that the possession of it would control the railroad which runs from Savannah to Charleston. The depth of water is sufficient for vessels of the ordinary class."

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 18, 1861.

"Abolition."

Whenever the Advertiser gets cornered, and has no other resort, he hisses out the charge that his opponents are abolitionists. This thing is played out with all decent men, and is only used when a Secessionist has nothing further to say.

The time was when there was a little party, made up of fanatical men and women in Boston, who took upon themselves the name of Abolitionists. It became an odious name out of that organization. The Democratic party for party purposes applied it to the Whig party, and no man was more severely denounced as an Abolitionist than Henry Clay. The Kansas movements originated the Republican party and broke down the Whig party. The Administration party then, whenever they wished to insult the Republican party, denounced them as Abolitionists. It was an odious appellation, and was employed as such. The outrages of the Administration in Kansas and the violations of Buchanan's pledges that the people there should be allowed to determine the question of slavery within the limits of that Territory, Mr. Douglas could not sanction, and he manfully came out in opposition to the Administration and in favor of the rights of the people. Nineteen-twentieths of the Democratic party in the North sustained Mr. Douglas; and thus himself and his party, equally with the Republican party, were denounced by the Administration party as Abolitionists. This odious charge was cast upon Mr. Douglas and his friends in the Eastern States and in the South, with great bitterness and malignity. Now we witness another phase in which this epithet is applied. In the rebel States, all men in the North who are not known to be Secessionists, are set down as Abolitionists. And when you go South, a man of Northern birth who will not shoulder his musket and pay his money to advance the rebel interests, is regarded as a "d—l Abolitionist," his property seized, and if he escapes with his life, he is fortunate.

The facts we have here stated are matters of history. Gov. Curry knows them to be true as well as we do. We therefore say that the epithet of Abolition is played out; and that no decent man, who has any respect for himself, will use it.

THE OREGON CAVALRY REGIMENT.—The withdrawal of the regular forces from Oregon and Washington necessitated the employment of the California volunteers in this district. In addition, the military authorities have thought proper to call on this State for one regiment of cavalry to be mustered into service for three years. With ten companies of infantry and a like number of cavalry the force in this country will be equal to that employed before the breaking out of the civil war.

It is necessary to have 2,000 men under arms in Oregon and Washington, to protect the frontier effectually. Gen. Harney in his letter to some citizens of Oregon last winter, on the subject of the war debt, testifies that no offensive operations against Indians could be undertaken with a less force; as forts must be garrisoned, communications kept open, and the enemy attacked besides. He justifies the employment of the Oregon volunteers in the last Indian war, as a matter of necessity.

The pay of volunteer cavalry, as at present organized, is fully equal to the gains of the most successful laborer. The amount that can be saved in a three years term of service will be more than the average of men will accumulate during that period. With $31 a month and $100 bounty, it will be the fault of the volunteer if he does not save near a $1000, in the time.

It presents an excellent opportunity to young men to acquire a knowledge of the use of arms, and the rigid discipline of the service in time of war is one of the best of schools.

From our Walla Walla Correspondent.

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 11, 1861.

Editor Oregonian:

After a tedious and fatiguing journey of five days overland from the Dalles, we arrived here last evening. Instead of the boasted sunshine we were expecting as soon as the Cascade range was left behind, we have had nothing but a succession of rainy days, interspersed, by way of variety, with a liberal share of sleet and snow, and now as I write, the snow lays near down to the valley on all the surrounding hills. Of course such a storm thus early was "unheard of" by the "oldest inhabitant" until the present season. But old settlers account for it on philosophical principles—the great accession of Willametters this fall to the valley, the rain having a peculiar affection for this people, following them wherever they go.

Walla Walla is emphatically a fast town, carrying one back to the early days of California. Gambling Saloons, are as common as "black berries in bear time," where a man can "go in and win," unless "luck" should turn against him, which I am told by "good judges" is often the case. However, good order and "good feeling" are the rule—a muss, the exception at all these fashionable haunts.

In the way of amusements the Robinson Family are the caterers. A new theatre, nearly completed, will soon be opened, when all lovers of Thespis can be relieved of their small change, and get a quid pro quo in return for their investment. Who wouldn't "sink" a $1 to witness the divine Susan in the "spider dance" made famous by Lola Montes? Not the undersigned.

Brady, James of course, completed at 12 m. last evening, his great feat of walking 90 consecutive hours without stopping. The task was a prodigious one, requiring great powers of endurance, but was easily accomplished by the pedestrian, amid the noise and confusion incident to such spectacles.

A "chunk" of a fight occurred yesterday afternoon near the town, which resulted disastrously to one of the parties, a lawyer, I believe, who was cut seriously but not dangerously, about the head. No cause assigned.

The news from Salmon river still continue flattering. Indeed, if one is to believe all he hears, "eye hath not seen, nor ear heard," such another deposite of auriferous wealth as is to be found in this new El Dorado. I have been creditably informed by a gentleman just down from Salmon, whose veracity cannot be questioned, that the recent snows there, "pan out" from two to four bits and the "bedrock" pitching at that. This news has created a brisk demand for "snow shoes" and "Starr whiskey," a liberal supply of which is already en route.

The Powder River mines seem to be attracting some attention just now, but I am unable to get hold of any reliable data by which a status of their richness can be formed. I am satisfied, however, that no such amount of "cold comfort" can be found at these new diggings, as at Salmon river. As your correspondent contemplates a visit there soon, he hopes in a future letter to afford satisfactory information to all "anxious" and "enquiring souls" of the extent, richness and capacity of these last named diggings. Until then let everybody "hold their horses."

TRUTHTELLER

OLYMPIA, Nov. 14, 1861

Editor Oregonian:

We have some sympathizers with secession here, who while they are deadly hostile to government, profess to be Union men. Some of these have interested themselves for the secession sheet in your city; and it is no secret here that every man who takes it, with but a single exception, are of secession proclivities. When together they chuckle over any misfortune that may happen to government, and their countenances brighten up when the rebels are at all successful. Some of them were vociferous union men as long as they could draw money from the government. They held on to the offices till the last hour, and gave out, some of them that they were to be continued; and now are exceedingly wroth that they are turned out to grass.

We have had bad weather here. We are preparing for the Legislature. The road to the Cowlitz, in many places would put to shame Bunyan's Slough of Despond. The mails, however, come along.

You will see by the Victoria papers that Garfield made a strong Union speech there.—Gov. Stevens is doing honor to our territory.

SALMON RIVER MINES.—We have seen a gentleman direct from the Salmon river mines. He says that there were about one thousand men in the mines, and that there were about three hundred claims being worked. He confirms previous reports of the richness of the mines now worked; but he said that he prospected for a fortnight without finding prospects that would yield more than $15 a day. These he would not work. A good deal of snow had fallen. He intended to go back in the Spring.

Our Regular Telegraphic Dispatches.

We received the following note from the Yreka Telegraph Office, on yesterday morning:

YREKA, Nov. 12, 1861.

H. L. PITTOCK, Esq.—Sir: The line between this place and Shasta has been out of repair for two or three days, and we have received no dispatch. We are trying to make an arrangement to get dispatches from Shasta, when the line is not working to this place, by Express; and in this way we shall be able to give you the news at least two days ahead of the mails. Yours, WADSWORTH & RAYNES.

A VERY PROPER SUGGESTION.—We find the following suggestion in the Statesman. We most unhesitatingly approve of it. No man should be allowed to vote for a member of Congress who is unwilling to take the oath of allegiance.

"It has been suggested that Congress ought to pass a uniform law for Congressional elections. If they do so, why not make an unequivocal profession of fidelity an indispensable qualification of every elector. Here we are; a State in the Union, but with a disunion representative in each branch of Congress, and the only living issue at our next election is to be whether we shall remain, or plunge into revolution."

THE ELECTIONS EAST.—There is one leading point exhibited in all the elections East. No party there has attempted to run candidates on any other platform than that the Government must be sustained in its efforts to put down the rebellion. The peace men, made up of sympathizers with treason, are few in number; and their leaders, one after another, are quietly sent off to Fort Lafayette. There is no party in the loyal States which at all sympathize with the Secession party of Oregon.

The Oregon City Argus recommends our people to observe the 28th inst. as a day of Thanksgiving. The editor well remarks: "How many of the sweetest joys of parents and children have been formed in the reunions on Thanksgiving Day? How many of us in Oregon have longed to 'go home on Thanksgiving—but our children have known no such pleasure?"

The Advertiser of Saturday says that "Senator Stark is a strong Union man." As the editor of that paper is in the practice of quoting passages of Scripture we would refer him to that which says, "Liars shall have their part," &c.

"CONSOLIDATED."—The Advertiser establishment has been removed into Senator Stark's building. That paper of Saturday says that "Senator Stark is a strong Union man."

Capt. H. T. Eckerson has returned to Vancouver, where he will again enter upon the duties of military store-keeper.

R. S. Partlow, Esq., has been appointed postmaster at Oregon City.

COL. CORCORAN.—The Republican party in New York are about to show their gratitude to the man who fought for them. It is stated they are to run Col. Corcoran for Clerk of New York—a very lucrative office which may be filled by deputies, and which therefore, will yield the Colonel's family a living, during his imprisonment.

☞ The attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen is respectfully solicited to the New Goods just received by the last steamer, embracing a full line of Ladies' Cloaks, Shawls, Bonnets, Rigolets, Opera Hoods, Scarfs, DeLaines, Cashmeres, Cobargs, Merinos, Solferino Plaids, Ducals, All-wool de Laines, Opera Flannels, Embroidered Madonnas, all wool Plaids, French Chintz, and new style Carpets, together with a full assortment of Broadway style of French Dress Frock Coats, Business Suits, Overcoats, Talma Cloaks, Velvet Vests, Fancy Pants, Opera Hats and new style Scarfs. CITY.

Circuit Court.—State of Oregon vs. Mary Champoy and Robert Sutherland.—The grand jury presented bills of indictment against defendants, charging them with the crime of fornication. The parties appeared, plead not guilty, and were admitted to bail.

State of Oregon vs. Robert Sutherland.—This is an indictment presented by the grand jury charging the defendant with the crime of adultery. Messrs. Farrar & Logan, the defendant's attorneys, filed a demurrer to the indictment, which was taken under advisement by the court.

State of Oregon vs. Edward Simonil.—The grand jury presented an indictment charging defendant with the crime of manslaughter, in killing Lewis Byrne; a statement of which has already appeared in the Oregonian.

State of Oregon vs. David and Wm. Rowland.—The defendants—two boys—were arraigned on the charge of petit larceny, to which they plead guilty. The court, in consideration of their extreme youth and the mitigating representations made to him, after a wholesome lecture, sentenced them to pay a fine of $5 and to be imprisoned one day.

Burning Fluid.—It is believed that many accidents occur in the use of this fluid, caused by filling the lamp entirely full—so that, when the liquor expands by heat, the lamp of necessity must break—and the fluid, coming in contact with fire, immediately explodes. The unfortunate occurrence at Mr. Buchtel's, in our city, is believed to have been caused by thus filling the lamp. But these fluid lamps can never be used with perfect safety.

Arrival.—The brig Sunny South, from Vancouver's Island, arrived on Saturday, with coal for the Portland Gas Company.

Minstrels.—The Minstrels played to a large and well pleased audience on Saturday night. Their performances will be continued through the week.

Multnomah County Agricultural Society.—The fourth annual meeting of the Society was held at the Court House on Saturday, 16th inst., the President, Thos. Frazar, in the chair.

The minutes of the last annual meeting and the meeting of the executive committee were read, also a list of the actual members of the Society.

The annual report of the Society was read and adopted, showing the financial condition of the Society as follows:

Cash in hand of Treasurer at last annual meeting	$144 90
Rec'd during year for Membership fees	30 00
" " " annual fees	21 00
	$195 90
Disbursements.
Paid—Ed. Farmer Office for printing By-Laws	16 00
Now on hand	$179 90

On motion the Society proceeded to the election of officers, resulting as follows: Thos. Frazar, President; P. A. Marquam, 1st Vice President; E. D. Quimby, 2d Vice President; J. D. Holman, Treasurer; M. S. Burrell, Secretary; A. J. Dufur, Henry Failing and Jas. B. Stephens, Executive Committee.

On motion, a Committee of five, consisting of A. J. Dufur, P. A. Marquam, J. D. Holman, E. D. Quimby, and H. Failing, were appointed to revise and amend the Constitution and report at an adjourned meeting of the Society.

On motion, the Secretary was ordered to have the proceedings of this meeting published in the Oregon Farmer, and such other city papers as will insert the same.

On motion, the Society adjourned to meet on the 2d Saturday in December, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Delinquent members will please pay in their yearly dues to the Secretary at that time.

Per order. M. S. Burrell, Sec'y.

Late Eastern News.

Every unmarried man but one, in Washington, Ind., has gone to the war. What a lovely place for the girls.

By the extinguishment of papers in the South, the rebels have but little more to boast of for a press than the cotton press.

The Secretary of War has authorized the building of a military telegraph along the Indiana border, as asked for by Governor Morton. It will be commenced at once.

Ten millions of dollars in Treasury notes have been issued, $7,000,000 of which are in circulation, $1,000,000 at the depositories, and $2,000,000 on hand.

Prentice says: It is thought a dangerous thing to board a man of war, but we have known fifty soldiers, each a man of war, boarded by a single landlord—but he was a host.

A Leesburg, Va., correspondent of the N. O. Delta boasts that the rebel commanders are as fully informed of all northern movements as if telegraph wires ran into the offices of the Department at Richmond.

DIED.

On Sunday, 17th inst., at 4 P. M., Antoinette, daughter of J. A. Fisher, aged one year. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, from the residence of the family on First street. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

Sweet's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Sweet, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrhea or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWEET, Proprietor, 635 California street, San Francisco. aug2d6m

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. A Funny Fall.—A few nights since Tom Jones went home to his wife in rather a disguised condition. He had drank so often for the succes of our volunteers, that he was compelled to eat a handful of cloves to remove the smell of whiskey. While undressing his wife detected the perfume of the spice and said, "Good gracious, Tom! how dreadfully you smell of cloves!"

"Eh! said Tom, starting, "cloves?"

"Yes, cloves; any one would think you had been embalmed, like a mummy!"

This made his wits go a wool-gathering.

"Phew! you are regularly scented with them. Where have you been to-night?" continued the wife.

Tom was thrown entirely off his guard;—his brain rambled—and with not the remotest idea of what he was saying replied:—"Why (hic) Clara, the fact is, I have just been on a little trip to the East Indies, and while I was there I fell over a spice box!"

Then she knew what was the matter.

Query.—One day last summer, as Dr. F., pastor of the First Baptist Church in ——, was on his way down street, Lettice, a smart little fellow of three years of age, spied him passing the door yard, and being well acquainted with the reverend, he started after him as fast as his little feet would carry him, eagerly calling—

"Hallo, Mr. F., hallo!"

"Ah, Lettice, how do you do? What now?"

"Mr. F., what did God make flies for?"

"Why, Lettice, I suppose to bite you when you are a bad boy."

The child stood a moment looking on the sand he was piling up in little heaps with his foot; then looking into the reverend Doctor's face, as sometimes children look, he said—

"Mr. F., do the flies ever bite you?"

A Wabashaw Justice.—In Wabashaw a man called to "acknowledge a deed," as the saying is. He spread the document on a table, and laying both hands on it, said in a solemn voice, "I acknowledge this to be a deed." Looking up, he asked if that would do, and was told it would, if he would sign his name at the bottom. It being the first deed acknowledged before him, he would only charge a dime, as he got along so well.

The same justice being called upon to marry a couple, he asked them if they wanted to be married; to which they answered "yes." He knew not what further to say,—being very diffident; but finally said that would do. The young couple concluded they were man and wife and lived accordingly.

Prentice thinks that Fremont will not attack Gen. Price in his rear, for that is his strongest point.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, [illegible] in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance,—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs,—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges from both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment. [illegible] During fifteen years [illegible] States and California [illegible] in the last stages [illegible] Private [illegible] human family [illegible] constitution [illegible] But should the [illegible] in the [illegible] the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers [illegible] the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a [illegible] existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated upon principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All letters or correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Skill.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the [illegible] from the pangs of disease, who, having regained their former health and impelled by gratitude, make known their cures and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The [illegible] imperiously command their publicity, and we [illegible] their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned desires [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their [illegible] feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practices of [illegible] the passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed by the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in some instances months, of their treatment, I found, to my inexpressible horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by [illegible] my disease being principally confined to the brain, [illegible] would be of little consequence. I despaired of [illegible] my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to [illegible] immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to his directions and advice my head became clear and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust, and want of [illegible] in others, the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful, exciting and at times pleasurable [illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have [illegible] peared, and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

Marysville, June [illegible]

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall [illegible] more as I feel very well, except that I have not [illegible] got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, ruined entirely, and never thought you would be able to [illegible] perfectly, but thought you might be able to [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and [illegible] of those cancers, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having yet got my strength, I feel as well as any man [illegible]

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge. I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited by it, you may put this letter in the newspaper. Believe me gratefully yours,

Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] recommendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and by causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible], which, owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting [illegible], was such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible], and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having previous to my affliction tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my case, and of my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] of which however he at once undertook my [illegible], and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted to make the case [illegible] in order that those in need of medical advice may find a [illegible] in whom every confidence can be placed.
